

I truly value obtaining Internet service from an independent ISP such as Sonic.net, and BellSouth's request would badly affect my individual choice of Internet Service for broadband. I truly value our local internet provider and feel thier hard work towards customer service should not be squashed! They have provided an exceptional quality of service to our community, and we are reaping the benefits. Let the small businessman make a living!